Parent's Code of Conduct for Primary School Sport

The support of parents and spectators is encouraged at PSSA (Primary School Sport Association) events. While in attendance, parents and family members need to observe the following Code of Conduct.

- Be encouraging and supportive of all players. Remember, students play for enjoyment.
- Ensure players always participate according to the rules.
- Model good sportsmanship at all times.
- All communication with staff, officials and students is polite and courteous.
- Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise.
- Do not coach from the sidelines.

I, have read and agree to abide by the Parent's Code of Conduct when attending PSSA sporting events.

I understand that if I break this code I may not be able to be a spectator of this competition as a consequence of my actions.
